1. Introduction

By registering to the CEV European Silver League 2023, all the teams commit to following the CEV Competitions Regulations, Guidelines, and Official Communications. The latest version of the 'CEV Volleyball Competitions Regulations' is available here:

https://webmedia.cev.eu/media/gliboebobo/cev-volleyball-competitions-regulations_15-06-2022.pdf

All participants are required to be aware of the content of this document, in particular the specific provisions outlined in Chapters 20 and 25.

This and subsequent 'Official Communications' are available as a pdf file on the CEV website here:

<https://inside.cev.eu/en/documents/volleyball-documents/>

The eventual winners of the competition will get the right to compete in the Golden division in 2024, where they will be replacing the lowest ranked team per gender from the 2023 edition.

For this competition, those working on it have the support of the 'Competitions Hotline' during the competition evenings and weekends on +352 621 25 34 44. If you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact the CEV Volleyball Department (nationalteams@cev.eu).

2. Participants

Participants: teams are eligible to participate following the below criteria:

- National Teams not participating in the FIVB Volleyball Nations League 2023
- National Teams not participating in the CEV Volleyball European Golden League 2023

3. Competition Format

Competition Format:

League Phase

- Home and Away matches
- Number of pools depending on the number of registered teams
- Pool composition according to serpentine system based on the CEV European National Team Ranking (12.09.2022 – Men and 16.10.2022 – Women respectively)
- Maximum six matches per team in the League phase.

Final Phase

- Final Four tournament – 1 organiser + pool winners. If organiser is among the pool winners, the 2nd best ranked teams across all pools will qualify. The CEV will adjust the qualifying criteria according to the number of pools in the League Round.
- The winner will qualify to the CEV Volleyball European Golden League 2023.
- The organisers of the Final Four are also required to compete in the League Phase.

If there is no organiser of the Final Four, two options will be possible:

- Semi-Finals and Finals will be played in Home & Away matches, or:
- Only Finals will be played in Home & Away matches.

4. Competition Calendar

The reserved periods in which the competition will take place are:

The deadline for receiving the bidding documents is

Wednesday, 30th November 2022 at 23:59 CET

7. Officials to be appointed for the League Round

CEV Supervisors

According to the general principles, the organising NF is responsible for appointing the CEV Supervisor. The NF's can appoint the local person from the confirmed list of CEV Supervisors for the European Cups 2023.

The organisers will bear all related costs such as travel, accommodation and per diem.

1st Referee

The ERC will appoint a neutral 1st Referee for each match. The nomination will be made available on the CEV database and CEV website as well.

The CEV will book the travel ticket to the nominated persons and bear costs such as travel costs, per diem and visa cost (if necessary and where applicable).

The organisers will bear the costs for local transportation, accommodation and other costs.

2nd Referee

The ERC will appoint a local 2nd Referee for each match. The nomination will be visible on the CEV database and CEV website as well.

The organisers will bear all related costs such as travel, accommodation and per diem.

Reserve Referee

The organising NF's is responsible for appointing the local Reserve Referee for each match. These proposed names should be added to respective 08 Form and approved by the ERC.

The organisers will bear all related costs such as travel, accommodation and per diem.

8. Financial Conditions
